

Youth Development

Supports youth in pursuing education beyond high school, including college scholarships and teaches computer and other technology courses for youth development and after school organizations.

Examples of community impact:

- 17,800 youth participated in after school tutoring and mentoring programs to help them attain academic success.
- 6,800 youth participated in programs designed to help them to make healthy choices and prepare for the workforce.

Program Investments

Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention: Helps girls develop educational, career and life goals.
Girls Inc

After-school Education Program: Provides high-quality, affordable after-school care for children of low-income, working families.

Abrazar • Boys & Girls Club of Huntington Valley • THINK Together

Career Prep: Provides counseling and employment preparation to youth ages 14 to 18.
Boys & Girls Club Santa Ana

Children and Youth Development: Trains children to become leaders within their communities.

Latino Health Access

College Bound Programs: Assists children to be academically successful and prepare for college.

AVID • Boys & Girls Club La Habra/Brea • Camp Fire USA • El Viento • Girls Inc. • Hispanic Scholarship Fund • KidsWorks • Orange County Community Housing Corp. • Orange County Asian and Pacific Islander Community Alliance • Saint Joseph Ballet • The Cambodian Family

Comadres en Accion: Provides a wide variety of learning experiences for low-income, English-language learners.

Girl Scout Council of Orange County

Developmental Assets Project: Employs the Search Institute's 40 Developmental Assets to assist youth development programs to build assets in children and youth that will assist them in being more successful in life.

Orange County United Way

Docent Science Program: Enrichment program designed to increase the teacher pipeline, encourage students to consider taking advanced science in high school and college and improve skills such as critical thinking, problem-solving and communications.

Project Tomorrow

GRIP Dropout Prevention: Provides mentoring, tutoring, youth development and organized activities.

Boys & Girls Club Westminster

Lean Health Program: Comprehensive health, fitness and wellness curriculum targeting children ages 3 to 16.

Boys & Girls Club Buena Park

Mentoring Program: Provides adult mentors to at-risk youth ages 6 to 17.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County

Motel Outreach: Transports children living in motels to after-school and youth development programs.

Boys & Girls Club of Cypress

Power Hour & Project Learn: Provides tutoring and homework assistance and leadership skill building to youth .

Power Hour: Boys & Girls Clubs of Fullerton and Santa Ana Project Learn: Boys & Girls Clubs of Fullerton and Westminster

Right Trak: Helps low-income youth who are behind in school and/or involved in delinquent behavior to develop skills and avoid gangs and drugs.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Tustin, Santa Ana and Anaheim

Scholarship Programs: Provides college scholarships to low-income youth.

AVID • Boys & Girls Club Alliance • Cal State Fullerton Guardian Scholars • Hispanic Scholarship Fund • Orange County Asian and Pacific Islander Community Alliance • Saint Joseph Ballet

Sea Tech: Provides students from underserved populations with intensive oceanographic research experiences.

Boys & Girls Club Capistrano Valley

Success For All: Provides free tutoring, skill-building and computer lab use to low income youth.

Friendly Center

Teens In Action: Provides programs that teach and support life skills and leadership development.

Camp Fire USA

Twilight Education Project: Provides English language education.
Boys & Girls Club Huntington Valley

Walk-In Youth Services: Provides youth ages 14 to 22 with pre-employment and life-skills training.
Youth Employment Services of the Harbor Area

Youth Development Program: Provides social, recreational and educational programs for youth.
Los Alamitos Youth Center

Youth Development & Leadership: Provides low-income Asian and Pacific Islander youth with the skills to pursue college.
Orange County Asian and Pacific Islander Community Alliance